

CAUTION HORSEMEN:

The Pennsylvania Equine Toxicology and Research Laboratory has informed that confirmable levels of acetaminophen are being discovered in plasma in horses.

Any trainer currently using acetaminophen should use caution when administering.